Book Club Questions

What theories did you have of what happened to Jason that first night before it was revealed?

When the novel switches to Daniela's point of view for the first time, were you surprised by the scene that takes place? Confused? What did you think was happening?

How would you have reacted to some of the situations in the book? Would you have acted similarly or differently? Why? Why do you think the character acted the way he or she did?

If you were Daniela, what would be your reactions throughout the book? Would you have suppressed the question she wanted to ask Jason of why he seemed different?

How would you have felt about living with the wrong Jason?

How would you have decided which of the Jason's was the right one for you and Charlie?

If you were Jason, how would you have tried to protect your family from the other Jason's?

When you found a world that was close enough to your reality, would you have done to that Jason what Jason2 did?

If you could write the rest of Amanda's story, what would it be?

Jason1 and Jason2 live the polar opposite lives, one with the ultimate family the other with ultimate success. If you had to choose, would you rather live Jason1 or Jason2's life?

What makes Jason1 a standout amongst the others? Is our allegiance to him a matter of perspective? Or is there something fundamental to him that is more deserving of Daniela and Charlie than the others?

What kind of world do you think Charlie imagines at the end?

If you could write one more chapter after the ending what would you write?

Does this book warrant a sequel? Whose story and what story-line would you want to know more about? What about a prequel or companion book?
